

ASPECT Angular Resolved Mode Technical/Feature note

First ARPES Result at Silver Single Crystal

The angular resolved mode is a new feature of the ASPECT analyser. This mode can be selected by choosing the appropriate pre-characterized lens voltages, which will be supported by the next Neo Control Suite version.